This year's Division IV Convention and International Prelims Contest offers everyone an opportunity to join in the festivities. There are organized events planned to lead you in song on both Friday and Saturday, and we invite all barbershoppers to join in the Combined Chorus presentation – a wonderful chance to enjoy a group-sing experience. And as always, the late night after-convention festivities offer lots of opportunities to hear quartets sing and to ring a few chords with your fellow barbershoppers from Division IV and beyond.
